

Swedish Civil
Contingencies
Agency

Looking ahead: Revamping Resilience and Security in a Post-pandemic World

19 May 2020, 2:45pm CET/1:45pm BST/8:45am EST/5:45am PST; ending at 5pm CET/4pm BST/11am EST/8am PST

Agenda

Introductory remarks

Dan Eliasson, Director General, Swedish Civil Contingencies Agency (MSB)

Keynote

1. Key shifts and changes in perception in a post-Covid-19 world and its implications for the long-term work on resilience and security

Michael Chertoff, Co-founder and Executive Chairman, Chertoff Group, former United States Secretary of Homeland Security

Speakers

2. Essential lessons identified from and implications for the preparedness for future epidemics and other medical contingencies

Tom Inglesby MD, Director, Center for Health Security, John Hopkins University

3. Key considerations for governments to be better organised and prepared to address future contingencies

Baroness Pauline Neville-Jones, House of Lords, former Minister of State for Security and Counter Terrorism, UK

4. Democratic resilience and trust– challenges and opportunities

Dr Kevin Casas-Zamora, Secretary-General, International IDEA

5. Key changes in digital behaviour and vulnerability that will shape cyber security in the future

Nathaniel Gleicher, Head of Cybersecurity Policy, Facebook

6. Future emergency management - main shifts and their implications for governments, international organizations and the private sector

Craig Fugate, Chief Emergency Management Officer, One Concern; former Administrator, Federal Emergency Management Agency

7. The challenge of insurance gaps and implications of Covid-19 on risk management

James Vickers, Chairman, Willis Re International

8. How the EU can strengthen its role in resilience and security building

Marina Kaljurand, Member of the European Parliament; former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Estonia

Discussion

Moderator: Elisabeth Braw, Senior Research Fellow, RUSI